1 PURPOSE

Molecular Partners AG (together with its subsidiaries worldwide, the Company), a company incorporated in Schlieren, Switzerland, and listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange (SIX) and the Nasdaq Stock Market (Nasdaq), is required to comply with all applicable laws of Switzerland, as well as the federal securities laws of the United States of America and the rules of Nasdaq.

The Company is committed to complying with all laws and regulations that govern its business, as well as maintaining high standards of financial, regulatory and cultural integrity, and the Company takes very seriously all complaints and concerns regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, fraud, financial, auditing and other legal matters. The Company’s financial information guides the decisions of management and is relied upon by the Company’s shareholders, employees, directors and business partners. The Company’s policies and practices have been developed to maintain the highest business, legal and ethical standards.

For these reasons, the Company maintains a workplace environment where all employees of the Company and each of its subsidiaries can raise concerns free of any harassment, discrimination or retaliation if they reasonably believe that they are aware of: (1) questionable accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters; (2) the reporting of fraudulent financial information of or by the Company; (3) violations of securities laws or other laws, rules and regulations; or (4) any activities or transactions that appear to violate the Company’s Code of Conduct. Employees should report those concerns as soon as possible after discovery. Other third parties, such as consultants or vendors, may also report a good faith complaint or concern regarding accounting, internal accounting control fraud, financial or auditing matters in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy (this POL). The Company strives to encourage open communication so that such concerns may be raised without fear of retaliation in any manner.

The Audit and Finance Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors (the Audit Committee) has established these procedures to facilitate the reporting of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting control, fraud, financial or auditing matters. The procedures govern (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, fraud, financial or auditing matters and (ii) the submission by employees (confidentially and anonymously, if they wish, in the United States, and in any other jurisdiction to the fullest extent legally permitted in such other jurisdiction), and the appropriate treatment, of concerns regarding accounting, internal accounting control, fraud, financial or auditing matters they believe to be questionable or violations of the Company’s Code of Conduct or U.S. federal securities laws or other applicable state and federal laws, including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended (the FCPA), the UK Bribery Act 2010 (the UKBA), the OECD Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions and similar laws, in each case applicable to the Company. This POL is a supplement to the Company’s Code of Conduct and should be read in conjunction therewith.

2 SCOPE

The document applies to all members of the Board of Directors and all members of the Executive Management, as well as any employee or contractor of the Company.

Other third parties, such as vendors, consultants, collaborators, partners or shareholders also may report a good faith complaint regarding accounting, auditing, fraud or financial matters in accordance with this POL.

Timeliness is critical because, as with all investigations, evidential matter may deteriorate, disappear or otherwise become harder to discover or less useful as time passes. Employees and contractors are encouraged to provide as much detail as possible regarding dates, times, places, names of people involved in any way, actions or inactions, statements made or the identity of other evidential matter.

This POL covers complaints relating to accounting, auditing, internal accounting control, fraud and financial matters, including the following:

- a. intentional error, fraud, gross negligence or recklessness in the preparation, review or audit of any of the financial statements of the Company or any of its direct and indirect subsidiaries;
- b. intentional error, fraud, gross negligence or recklessness in the recording of transactions of the Company or any of its direct and indirect subsidiaries;
- c. deviation from full and fair reporting of the Company's results or financial condition;
- d. intentional noncompliance with the internal and reporting controls of the Company or any of its direct and indirect subsidiaries;
- e. significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the internal or reporting controls of the Company or any of its direct and indirect subsidiaries;
- f. issues affecting the independence of the Company's independent registered accounting firm;
- g. falsification, concealment or inappropriate destruction of corporate or financial records;
- h. theft, embezzlement, fraud or other misappropriation of Company assets or funds;
- i. violations of the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) that are related to accounting, internal accounting controls, fraud, financial and auditing matters;
- j. alleged retaliation against employees and other persons who make, in good faith, a complaint under this POL;
- k. fraud against investors, securities fraud, mail or wire fraud, bank fraud or fraudulent statements to management, outside auditors, the SEC or members of the investing public; or
- l. violations of the Company's Securities Trading Policy, the Company's Code of Conduct, the U.S. federal securities laws or other applicable state and federal or foreign laws, including the FCPA, the UKBA and similar laws.

Failure to report these matters to the Company, the appropriate government agency (including the SEC) or any relevant law enforcement agency may result in disciplinary action.

The receipt, retention, investigation and treatment of all other complaints and concerns regarding legal and regulatory matters will be overseen by the Compliance Office and handled pursuant to the Company's Code of Conduct and related policies and guidances.

5 PROCEDURE

5.1 Policy of Non-Retaliation

Reprisal, threats, retribution or retaliation in any way against any person who has in good faith made a complaint or reported a concern, or against any person who assists in any investigation or process with respect to such a complaint or concern, is prohibited. Employees who believe that they have been subjected to any discrimination, retaliation or harassment for having submitted a complaint regarding questionable accounting, internal accounting controls, fraud, financial or auditing matters, or the reporting of fraudulent financial information under this POL, or participating in an investigation relating to such a complaint, should immediately report the concern to the Compliance Officer or to any of their supervisors or to the chair of the Audit Committee. Any complaint that such discrimination, retaliation or harassment has occurred will be promptly and thoroughly investigated. If such a complaint is substantiated, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken, up to and including termination of employment/engagement for those individuals that engaged in the harassment or retaliation.

Nothing contained in this POL or the Code of Conduct limits or otherwise prohibits an employee from communicating with, filing a charge or complaint with, or otherwise participating in any investigation or proceeding with any federal, state or local governmental agency or commission (e.g., the SEC), including providing documents or other information, without notice to the Company.

5.2 Compliance Officer and Audit Committee Chair

The Audit Committee has appointed the Company's Compliance Officer for responsibility for certain aspects of this POL. The Compliance Officer is responsible for administering this POL. The Compliance Officer is the General Counsel of the Company. The Audit Committee has also designated the Audit Committee Chair as the person responsible for receiving, reviewing and then investigating (under the direction and oversight of the Audit Committee) complaints under this POL. The Audit Committee Chair may be reached by calling or emailing the Compliance Hotline as provided below. If an employee or contractor has a complaint covered by this POL, such employee or contractor must report such matter to the Audit Committee Chair. If the suspected violation involves the Audit Committee Chair, the employee or contractor must instead report the suspected violation to the Compliance Officer or another member of the Audit Committee.

5.3 Anonymous Reporting of Complaints

The Company has also established a procedure under which complaints regarding accounting, fraud, financial internal accounting control or audit matters may be reported anonymously. Employees and other third parties may anonymously report these concerns to either (i) leaving an anonymous message via a toll free call to the Company's Compliance Helpline at 0800 838

835 (Switzerland), compliance@molcularpartners.com or the Company web based compliance tool EQS Integrity Line, or (ii) to the Compliance Office or the Compliance Officer via regular mail to Molecular Partners AG, Attn: Compliance Officer, Wagistrasse 14, 8952 Schlieren, Switzerland. Employees or contractors should make every effort to report their concerns using one or more of the methods specified above. The complaint procedure is specifically designed so that employees or contractors have a mechanism that allows the employee or contractor to bypass a supervisor he/she believes is engaged in prohibited conduct under this POL. Anonymous reports should be factual, instead of speculative or conclusory, and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow the Compliance Officer, Audit Committee Chair and/or other persons investigating the report to adequately assess the nature, extent and urgency of the investigation.

5.4 Policy for Receiving and Investigating Complaints

Upon receipt of a complaint, the Audit Committee Chair will determine whether the information alleged in the complaint pertains to an accounting, fraud, financial, internal accounting control or audit matter. The Audit Committee will be notified promptly of all complaints that pertain to an accounting, internal accounting control, fraud, financial or audit matter and will determine the planned course of action. Complaints regarding matters other than accounting, internal accounting control, fraud, financial or audit matter will be investigated by the Compliance Officer or other appropriate person designated by the Audit Committee Chair.

Initially, the Audit Committee or Compliance Officer will determine if there is an adequate basis for an investigation. If so, the Audit Committee Chair or Compliance Officer will appoint one or more internal or external investigators to promptly and fully investigate the claim(s) under the direction and oversight of the Audit Committee and Compliance Officer, including consultation with senior management or others in the course of the investigation. The Audit Committee or Compliance Officer may also appoint other persons to provide direction and oversight of the investigation. The Audit Committee Chair or Compliance Officer, as appropriate, will confidentially inform the reporting person (if his or her identity is known) that the complaint was received and whether an investigator has been assigned. If the Audit Committee Chair determines that the allegations do not relate to the POL, they will forward such communications to the Compliance Officer for further investigation under the Company's Code of Conduct and related policies and guidances.

Confidentiality will be maintained to the fullest extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate review. Unless a complaint has been submitted anonymously, the Audit Committee Chair or Compliance Officer will respond to the reporting person acknowledging receipt of the complaint, and, to the extent necessary, seek further clarifying information regarding the complaint. Access to reports and records of complaints may be granted to regulatory agencies and other persons or parties at the discretion of the Audit Committee. Documents that are covered by the attorney-client communication and/or work-product privileges (including in each case their foreign-law equivalents) should not be disclosed unless the Compliance Officer has consented in writing to a waiver of privilege.

In all cases, prompt and appropriate corrective action will be taken by the Company, as overseen by the Audit Committee. An employee may be subject to disciplinary action, which may include the termination of his or her employment, and a contractor may be subject to contractual actions and claims, which may include the termination of his or her engagement or a claim for damages, if the employee or contractor fails to cooperate in an investigation or deliberately provides false or misleading information during an investigation. The specific action that will be taken in response to a report will depend on the nature and gravity of the conduct or circumstances reported and the quality of the information provided. Where questionable accounting, internal accounting controls, fraud, financial or auditing matters or the reporting of fraudulent financial information is verified, corrective action will be taken and, if appropriate, the persons responsible will be disciplined.

The Company endeavors to operate on a highly transparent basis and wants to be made aware of alleged wrongdoings and to address them as soon as possible. We encourage you to first address your concerns by following the procedures outlined herein for reporting to or through the Company, so that the Company may conduct its own internal investigation and take corrective action as quickly as possible. Among other things, the Company may choose to self-report certain matters to government or other agencies. However, nothing in this POL is intended to prevent any employee or contractor from directly reporting information to law enforcement agencies when an employee or contractor has reasonable cause to believe that the violation of a law or regulation has occurred. A report to law enforcement agencies may be made instead of, or in addition to, a report directly to the Company through its management or the Company's Compliance Helpline. Additionally, a person reporting a complaint under this POL, unless such complaint is made anonymously, will be informed that the matter was investigated and requested to immediately report any perceived retaliation directly to the Compliance Officer.

5.5 Retention of Complaints

The Audit Committee Chair, with the assistance of the Compliance Officer as appropriate, will maintain a log of all complaints, tracking their receipt, investigation and resolution, and will prepare a periodic summary report for each member of the Audit Committee. Each member of the Audit Committee will have access to the log and the Audit Committee Chair may provide access to the log to other personnel involved in the investigation of complaints. Copies of the log and all documents obtained or created in connection with any investigation will be maintained in accordance with any established document retention policy.

Nothing in this POL shall be construed to supersede mandatory provisions of Swiss law relating to document storage and retention, including in particular article 958f of the Swiss Code of Obligations of March 30, 1911, as amended.
